PRESS RELEASE

Buckeye State Bank Employees Donate over $3,000 to Local Charities

Powell, Ohio: Every Friday, Buckeye State Bank employees have had the option of paying $4 to wear jeans to work, with the money going to charities that are chosen by the employees. With 3 locations in Ohio, the total donation to its local communities amounted to over $3,000 for 2021. In addition to the employee donations, the bank matched those funds in support of the worthy causes that mean most to the employees.

At the beginning of each year, employees vote to select the charities that will benefit from the Jeans Day fundraiser. Powell employees chose to donate to the Suicide Hotline. While DeGraff selected the Make-a-Wish Foundation and Perrysburg contributed to the Northern Ohio Children's Alliance.

"This program is just one example of our commitment to the local communities that we serve", said Shawn Keller, President and CEO. "Servant Leadership is a Core Belief that we take very seriously."
