PRESS RELEASE

BUCKEYE STATE BANK ANNOUNCES NEW CIO AND CHANGES IN MORTGAGE LENDING

February 14, 2022 - Buckeye State Bank (“BSB”) is pleased to announce and welcome Jason Smith, Cody Perkins, Dave Muncey and Darren Huff to the team.

Jason, Cody and Dave join Rick VanHouten and Eric Anderson on the Residential Mortgage Lending team. Jason comes to Buckeye with over a decade of experience in mortgage lending, serving the Central Ohio community and helping families finance their dreams. Cody has been assisting individuals with their home loan request since 2016, focused on making the home loan process convenient and rewarding. Dave brings his extensive knowledge of mortgage loan processing and loan origination to the team.

“We are excited to continue the growth of our team,” said Rick VanHouten, President of Residential Mortgage Lending. “Jason, Cody and Dave have illustrated their commitment to deliver an exceptional experience to clients during their careers, which matches perfectly with BSB’s Vision to deliver a unique and rewarding clients experience to our members.”

Additionally, Darren Huff has also joined BSB as Vice President and Chief Information Officer. Darren most recently served as Chief Information Officer for Shalom Health Care Center. He brings over 9 years of experience managing Information Technology. He will lead BSB’s technology strategy.

“We are excited to welcome Jason, Cody and Darren to Buckeye State Bank,” stated Shawn Keller, President and CEO. “Their addition to our talented team continues to strengthen BSB’s foundation as we build an employee-owned financial organization centered around the client experience. As a locally-owned community bank, we take pride in accepting local deposits and lending those deposits back into the local community through home, auto, and small and mid-size business loans. These new individuals will expand our ability to do that.”
